(The Arkansas Law School of Little Rock and the Southern Law School of Memphis submitted total enrollment figures, without breakdown, which explains the discrepancy of 128 in the total shown for column 7 and the combined totals of columns 1 to 6 inclusive. The Southern University of Memphis did not submit any figures notwithstanding three personal requests for the information. The Langston University Law School of Oklahoma City has no enrollment. Our information is that the Philadelphia College of Law has ceased to function, and that the Laurel Law School of Laurel, Miss., and the Ashville University Law School of Ashville, N. C., tutor students registered for law office study and are not, strictly speaking, law schools. Hence, no enrollment figures are shown for those schools. J. G. H.).
